ADDISON TOWNSHIP
BOARD OF REVIEW

Addison Township Board Policy for Applicants Requesting Consideration Under SECTION 211.7u of the GENERAL PROPERTY TAX ACT OF 1893: THE MICHIGAN HOMESTEAD POVERTY EXEMPTION.

APPLICATION PROCEDURES AND GUIDELINES

1. Applicants must obtain the current application from the Township Treasurer’s office. Physically disabled or infirmed applicants may call the Township Treasurer’s office to make necessary arrangements for assistance. A poverty exemption will be considered for the current year only. A new application must be submitted annually after January 1 but before the day prior to the last day of the Board of Review.
2. In order to qualify for a poverty exemption, the applicant shall meet all of the requirements set forth in these Guidelines. For example, it is possible that a claimant might meet the income test for the exemption but not meet the asset level test or some other test set by the Township. In this situation, the applicant would not qualify for the exemption.
3. Income Test: Applicants must meet the Federal Poverty Income Guidelines published in the prior calendar year in the Federal Register by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.
 - A. In applying these guidelines, income shall include, but not necessarily be limited to:
 - (i) Money wages and salary before any deductions;
 - (ii) Net receipts from any non-farm self-employment, these are receipts from a person’s own business, professional enterprise, or partnership after deductions for business expenses;
 - (iii) Net receipts from farm self-employment, which are receipts from a farm from which one operates as an owner, renter, or sharecropper, after deductions for farm operation expenses;
 - (iv) Regular payments from social security, railroad retirements, unemployment compensation, strike benefits from union funds, workers’ compensation, veterans’ payments, public assistance (including aid to families with dependent children, supplemental security income, emergency assistance money payments and non-federally funded general assistance or general relief money payments);
 - (v) Alimony, child support and military family allotments or other regular support from an absent family member or other family member not living in the household;
 - (vi) Private pensions, government employment pensions (including military retirement pay) and regular insurance or annuity payments;
 - (vii) College or university scholarships or grants, fellowships, or assistantships; and
 - (viii) Dividends, interest, net rental income, net royalties, periodic receipts from estates or trust, net gambling, or lottery winnings.

- B. Income shall not include (though these may be “assets”):
- (i) Money received from the sale of property such as stocks bonds, a house, or a car unless a person is in the business of selling such property;
 - (ii) Withdrawals of bank deposits and borrowed money;
 - (iii) Tax refunds, gifts, loans, lump-sum inheritances, and one-time insurance payments;
 - (iv) Food or housing received in lieu of wages and the value of food and fuel produced on farms; and
 - (v) Federal non-cash benefit programs such as Medicare, Medicaid, food stamps and school lunches.
4. The Board of Review, in addition to considering the federal poverty income standards, may award an exemption if an applicant’s household income is reduced below federal poverty income standards, by reason of:
- A. Any expenses relating to illness of the applicant, or other persons residing in the homestead who are claimed as exemptions on the applicant’s federal income tax return.
 - B. Any medical expenses incurred and paid by the applicant within the last year without government assistance and which were not covered by insurance.
5. If the Board of Review determines that the applicant has or should have income from other sources such as relatives, dependents, or friends; they may add this income to the applicant’s reported income, and is the resulting sum of these is greater than the income guideline limits, then a poverty exemption shall be denied. If the amount of this income is added to the applicant’s reported income and the resulting sum is less than the income guideline limits, then a poverty exemption may be granted.
6. Assets Test: A poverty exemption shall not be granted if the total value of the assets of the applicant and each member of the applicant’s household exceed $50,000. This excludes the property for which the exemption is requested BUT includes all other property assets including those belonging to all other persons residing in the household. Property assets include, but are not limited to:
- A. Savings including savings accounts, postal savings, credit union shares, certificates of deposit, cash, stocks, bonds, mutual funds, or similar investments;
 - B. Insurance commodities including life insurance held by a person or his or her spouse;
 - C. Vehicles, including but not limited to, cars, trucks, RVs, motorcycles, off road vehicles, snowmobiles, and boats, but excluding the applicant’s personal vehicle; and
 - D. Other assets, including but not limited to, coin collections, antiques, silver, jewelry, art, and other tangible items.
7. If a person’s or the households’ total assets exceed $50,000 after exclusions, then the principal residence is not eligible for an exemption under this section. A poverty exemption shall not be granted to an applicant with cash on deposit in excess of the proposed tax obligation for the ensuing year unless the applicant can show evidence that the cash is subject to a legitimate cost of living expense.

8. A poverty exemption shall be granted to any applicant who owns real property whether singly or jointly, regardless of location other than his or her homestead.

 - A. Own the property for which the exemption is sought and reside therein;
